Fannin pleads guilty in Blanton case

by Lilly Adkins
ASSOCIATE EDITOR

PAINTSVILLE — A woman who was connected to the murder of a Johnson County couple last year pleaded guilty Friday to hindering prosecution and other charges and will be formally sentenced July 19.

Amanda Fannin, the girlfriend of William “Willie” Blanton, appeared in Johnson Circuit Court Friday with her attorney, William Collins, for what was to have been a status conference at which time she entered an amended plea agreement to hindering prosecution.

Fannin originally entered a plea deal with the commonwealth’s attorney’s office in February to provide information regarding the location of the bodies of Blanton’s parents, Larry and Sandra Blanton, in exchange for charges being dismissed against her and to prevent the commonwealth from seeking the death penalty in William Blanton’s case.

Fannin was indicted last year for promoting contraband and flagrant non-support, both charges unrelated to the case, but along with Blanton had been considered

Two contracts were awarded in Lawrence County, including $1.09 million for two sections of the Louisa-Ashland Road (U.S. 23) that consists of a 2.1-mile section from Ky. 3398 to Blaine Creek Road and a 0.01-mile section near the north end of Blaine Creek Bridge. Mountain Enterprises Inc. was awarded the contract, with a completion date of Oct. 15.

Lawsuit in 2012 fatal collision is settled

ASSOCIATE EDITOR

WILLIAMSON — A lawsuit involving the death of a Martin County man and a Staffordsville man who were involved in a head-on collision Nov. 16, 2012, was settled in Mingo Circuit Court without having to go to trial.

Terms of the settlement were not disclosed by either party.

Randy Dale Goble of Debord and Donald Hill of Staffordsville both died as a result of injuries suffered in the crash.

Goble was on his way toward his work site for Merr Equipment Company near Williamson, W.Va., according to information released by Kirk Law Firm, which represented the Goble family, at approximately the same time Hill left his third-shift job site near Williamson and started on his journey home after having become ill at work and leaving earlier than usual.

Goble was traveling on US 52, just east of Kermit, W.Va., and Hill was traveling in the opposite direction when something apparently said. "He lives down Rt. 1690."

Post 14 confirmed Tuesday that Stepp is scheduled for an extradition hearing in Charleston today (Wednesday) and afterward he would be brought back to Lawrence County to face charges for the bank robbery.

According to the original news release, Murriell said Stepp didn't brandish a weapon but produced a note at approximately 2:55 p.m. June 14, asking a teller to give him money at the Inez Deposit Bank located at 202 East Main Street in downtown Louisa.

Stepp obtained an undisclosed amount of cash before exiting through the bank's back door, fleeing on foot along Lock Avenue and traveling toward Madison Street, the release said.

The Louisa Police Department and the Lawrence County Sheriff's Office also responded to the scene to render assistance.

The case is under investigation by KSP Det. Jeff Kelley.

happened to Hill that caused his vehicle to travel across the center line and crash head-on with Goble.

Emergency workers at the time suspected that Hill may have fallen asleep.

The impact was so violent that both men died at the scene, the release said. The crash occurred at a point where a guardrail appeared to have prevented Goble from swerving away from the oncoming vehicle.

"This is one of the most tragic accidents I have ever seen," John Kirk said. "Two very good, hard-working men dead as they traveled to and from work. It appears that something happened to Mr.

Hill, a heart attack maybe that caused him to come into Mr. Goble's path."

Kirk said in the release that the terms are not released and that it is typical to not disclose that information to protect the privacy and confidentiality of the families involved.

Thirteen of those charged with drug-related offenses were arrested by members of the Johnson County Sheriff's Office June 20.

"I think everybody knows that drugs are an epidemic in Eastern Kentucky. Drug overdose mortality rates among Kentuckians increased 282 percent between 2000 and 2010," Johnson County Sheriff Dwayne Price said in a press release. "In Kentucky, more people died last year from drug overdoses than car crashes. Even though overdose deaths have declined in Johnson County in the past two years, even one death from overdose is unacceptable because ultimately, it's preventable. We at the sheriff's office will do everything within our power to stop their sell and distribution in our county. We are in the schools trying to reach the kids before they get started on the wrong path and we are getting a lot of positive feedback from the kids and the whole county with our drug education programs. We have a deputy, Tim Clark, who specializes in teaching drug education and safety classes in the county and city schools. We have also had great success with our drug roundups so far and today is no exception. We have two deputies who specialize in these drug cases and their work never stops. As we speak, they are working on the next round-up."

Anyone with information regarding knowledge of drug activity or any other illegal activity is encouraged to contact the Johnson County Sheriff's Office at (606) 789-3411.

FANNIN: Woman pleads guilty in Blanton case a suspect in the case involving his missing parents.

Fannin alleged in the original plea deal that she wasn't present when Larry and Sandra Blanton were killed, and that she only became aware of their murder after the fact. But information came to light later that she may have had a hand in the murder of at least Sandra Blanton and the commonwealth's attorney office sought to have the plea deal voided.

Fannin's amended plea agreement charges her with flagrant non-support and promoting contraband along with hindering prosecution. In exchange for the guilty plea, prosecutors recommended that she be sentenced to three years for each offense, with the sentences to run concurrently, for a total of three years.

"This motion says binding upon the court," Circuit Court Judge John David Preston said during the hearing Friday. "No plea is binding upon the court."

Preston agreed to review the motion but added that Fannin could receive up to 15 years for the offenses.

William Blanton pleaded guilty to murdering his parents and was formally sentenced June 17 to serve two life sentences without the possibility of parole.

Johnson County Coroner J.R. Frisby said that a preliminary autopsy of Larry and Sandra Blanton showed that they had died of blunt force trauma to the head and to the trunk. The official date of their deaths was established as Sept. 7, 2012, through an investigation conducted by the Johnson County Sheriff's Office.

The couple's remains were found buried in an area by a barn on their Oil Springs property, approximately 4-4.5 feet down in the dirt and beneath a heavy pile of horse manure, according to Frisby.

Larry and Sandra Blanton went missing in September 2012.

Willie Blanton was arrested Oct. 8, 2012, after he tried to fill his father's prescription at a Paintsville pharmacy, but wasn't charged with their murder until the bodies were recovered in February.

Blanton also pleaded guilty to tampering with physical evidence and 10 counts of forged checks, attempting to fill his father's prescription at a Paintsville pharmacy and being a persistent felony offender.

In the plea deal, Blanton received five years for each offense, which was enhanced to 10 years because he is a persistent felony offender. The sentences will run concurrently with those for the murder charges. Blanton also received 253 days jail credit for the time he has already been incarcerated.

Blanton's attorney, Steve Goble, said that his client wanted to resolve the case and give the family some closure.

Family members read impact statements during Blanton's formal sentencing, during which they said they would never understand how he could have committed such "horrible acts" against his parents.

Firefighter narrowly misses bullet while battling Charley blaze

by Lilly Adkins

CHARLEY — Fire destroyed a home at Charley early Sunday morning, the family lost everything and a firefighter was almost hit with a bullet that went through a structure where he was working to put out the fire.

The home located on Rt. 1760, belonged to Paul and Lotressa Pigg and their two young daughters.

Louisa firefighter Terry “Doc” King narrowly missed being struck in the leg by the bullet as it passed through the building and went on to strike a tree, authorities said.

Lowmansville firefighter

Sherry Burchett said the fire was of unknown origin and that the family lost everything.

Burchett also said that after Lowmansville responded, its members called both Cherryville and Louisa fire departments to render mutual aid.

If anyone would like to make clothing donations to the family, the baby girl wears 0-6 months; the little girl wears a 3T; the mother wears a size 7 in pants and the father wears 34-30 in pants.

All donations can be dropped off at C & W Barber Shop located at 114 N. Main, across from Home Federal Bank, in Louisa.

DONATIONS ARE BEING accepted for a family who lost their home at Charley in Lawrence County early Sunday morning.

Physical examination required for first-time Lawrence students

LOUISA — The Lawrence County School District requires that each child entering school for the first time, as well as those entering 6th grade, have a physical examination along with state-mandated immunizations.

These services are available at the Lawrence County Health Department. They are provided at no cost to children with Medicaid or KCHIP coverage. Children of all ages need to complete health check-ups on a regular basis to protect their health.

These check-ups are not only for certain grades in school, but should be done at regular intervals for all children and more frequently for infants. With scheduled check-ups, minor health problems can be caught before they become serious.

Children should have a check-up at the ages listed: one, two, four, six, nine, 12, 15, 18, and 24 months, three, four, five, six and eight years. Children ages 10-20 should have a check-up yearly.

violence. These views still exist in today's media. Programs like Diane Sawyer's "Hidden America," The History Channel's "The Hatfields and McCoys" and MTV's "Buckwild" have fueled stereotypes that we are ignorant, violent, and poor.

Brashear went on to talk about many of the Appalachians that are trying to change this image. She spoke highly of the Appalshop film group in Whitesburg that has worked tirelessly since the 1960s to help promote positive views of Appalachia and its people. She also spoke more about MACED and what they are doing for our region. One of the primary goals of MACED is to combat these stereotypical images in the media and communicate to change them to a more realistic image.

Lastly, Brashear covered economic development in Martin County. Brashear said, "As the coal industry continues to decline, the Appalachian economy MUST transition." There are many homegrown assets that we will be able to use for our benefit in the future. Local foods, wood products, healthcare, and tourism are several sectors that could begin to rise in the future. Brashear is confident that with entrepreneurship and investment the future of our region will be bright.

your Facebook layout. A program like Social Fixer can change the way you see it, but nothing will change the way other people see it.

4. Who viewed your profile?

Knowing who views your profile is the Holy Grail of social media. Who doesn't want to know who is cyberstalking them?

That's why this scam has been around almost as long as Facebook. No matter how often Facebook says it isn't possible, people still want to believe it is.

So they gladly download apps or visit websites that turn out to be malicious. And they give full access of their Facebook profile to strangers. No good can come of that.

The best you can do is see who has unfriended you. Of course, that only works after you've activated one of the tracking services.

These are the most popular scams, but it's really just the tip of the iceberg. I keep you updated on the major ones on my Facebook page, so be sure to "Like" me. If you want to keep track of every scam happening on Facebook, the site Facecrooks is updated with scams as they break.

Jude headed into sophomore season at EKU

RICHMOND — Johnson Central High School graduate J.J. Jude is headed into his sophomore season with the Eastern Kentucky University football program.

Jude, the all-time leading rusher in state history, fared very well during the spring.

In high school, Jude twice rushed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, scoring 31 touchdowns as a senior. He was a two-time first team all-state honoree and was named Kentucky Athlete of the Year. Jude was also a two-time state wrestling champion and five-time All-American. A standout in the classroom, Jude graduated from JCHS with a 3.97 GPA.

EKU-UofL kickoff time set: The Eastern Kentucky University football game at Louisville on Saturday, Sept. 7 will kick off at noon. The game will be broadcast on ESPN3.

This will be the 27th meeting between the two in-state teams with Louisville holding a 17-8-1 lead in the all-time series record. The Cardinals won the most recent meeting against the Colonels, a 23-13 victory in 2010.

Eastern Kentucky is still looking for its first win against an NCAA FBS program under sixth year head coach Dean Hood. Eastern's last win against an FBS team was at Louisville back in 1985. However, three of EKU's five losses to FBS competition under Hood have been by 10 points or less.

EKU will kick off the 2013 schedule with a Thursday night home opener against Robert Morris on Aug. 29.

Fans can reserve 2013 season tickets by contacting the EKU athletics office at 859-622-2122.

The ticket office also has a limited number of tickets to sell to the UofL game.

Fish kill in Cave Run Lake being investigated

FRANKFORT — Biologists are searching for the cause of a fish kill in Cave Run Lake that affected thousands of white bass.

Dr. Bob Durborow, aquaculture extension specialist at Kentucky State University, said the white bass he examined had bacterial infections which contributed to their condition, but was likely not the primary cause of the fish kill.

Durborow sent samples of the fish to the Warm Springs National Fish Hatchery in Georgia for additional testing for viruses. The results of the tests may not be available until later this summer.

Gerry Buynak, assistant director of fisheries for the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, said anglers first observed thousands of dead and struggling white bass in Cave Run Lake the weekend of June 8. No other species were affected.

Many of the white bass had marks on their bodies, the cause of which was later determined to be bacterial infection. The fish kill affected white bass throughout the 8,270-acre lake, which is located near Morehead.

Buynak noted a similar white bass fish kill occurred in the lake in the early 2000s. However, that fish kill only affected larger fish. This week's fish kill affected white bass ranging in size from 6 to 16 inches.

To help maintain the fishery, biologists stocked 64,000 fingerling-sized white bass in Cave Run Lake on June 13.

KHSAA 'dead period' underway

LEXINGTON — High school student-athletes from throughout the state will get a break over the next couple of weeks, thanks to the Kentucky High School Athletic Association's Dead Period, which started Tuesday, June 25, and runs through July 9.

Member schools adopted the period of June 25 to July 9 as a time of inactivity, which followed the pattern of the historic idling of southern textile mills and this time allows administrators, coaches, student-athletes and their families a time where they are not committed to school play.

According to Article 3 of Bylaw 26 (The Dead Period), it states that: "Students may not receive coaching or training from school personnel (either salaried or non salaried) and school facilities, uniforms, nicknames, transportation or equipment shall not be used each year in any KHSAA sanctioned sport or cheerleading squad during the period beginning June 25, and going through July 9. School funds may not be expended in support of interscholastic athletics in any KHSAA sanctioned sport during this period. These restrictions shall not apply to any postseason wrap-up activities, celebrations and recognition events relating to a spring sports team at a school which participated in KHSAA state championship play in that particular sport during that particular year."

TARIFF S.S.C.
(System Sales Clause)

RATE.

The Company has modified this provision in the tariff to update the calculation of the System Sales Adjustment Factor as follows:

1. When the monthly net revenues from system sales are above or below the monthly base net revenues from system sales, as provided in paragraph 3 below, an additional credit or charge equal to the product of the KWHs and a system sales adjustment factor (A) shall be made, where "A", calculated to the nearest 0.0001 mill per kilowatt-hour, is defined as set forth below.

For the period beginning January 2014 through the end of the month in which Big Sandy Unit 2 ends commercial operation, the monthly System Sales Adjustment Factor shall be the following:

System Sales Adjustment Factor (A) = (1.24Tb+0.6[Tm-2.24Tb])/Sm

For all months following the month in which Big Sandy Unit 2 ends commercial operation, the monthly System Sales Adjustment Factor shall be the following:

System Sales Adjustment Factor (A) = (0.6 [Tm - Tb])/Sm

In the above formulas "T" is Kentucky Power company's (KPCo) monthly net revenues from system sales in the current (m) and base (b) periods, and "S" is the KWH sales in the current (m) period, all defined below.

The Company has revised this provision in the tariff to read as follows:

2. The net revenue from KPCo's sales as reported in the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's Uniform System of Accounts under Account 447, Sales for Resale, shall consist of and be derived as follows:

- a. KPCo's total revenues from system sales as recorded in Account 447, less b. and c. below.
- b. KPCo's total out-of-pocket costs incurred in supplying the power and energy for the sales in a. above.

The out-of-pocket costs include all operating, maintenance, tax, transmission losses and other expenses that would not have been incurred if the power and energy had not been supplied for such sales, including demand and energy charges for power and energy supplied by Third Parties.

- c. KPCo's environmental costs allocated to non-associated utilities in the Company's Environmental Surcharge Report.

3. The base monthly net revenues from system sales are as follows:

Billing Month	System Sales (Total Company Basis)
January	$-528,886	$1,269,435

Where:

RB _{KP(C)}	=	Environmental Compliance Rate Base for Big Sandy and 50% of the Mitchell Plant.

"KP(C)" identifies components from the Big Sandy Units and 50% of the Mitchell Plant – Current Period, and "IM(C)" identifies components from the Indiana Michigan Power Company's Rockport Units – Current Period.

The Company also made changes to section 5 of Tariff E.S. as a result of the termination of the Pool Agreement to remove references to environmental projects at generating facilities that Kentucky Power does not own or with which it does not have a long-term contract.

RIDER A.F.S.

Where:

1. "PJMD" is the actual annual PJM demand-related net costs (over)/under; calculated by comparing the amount of PJM demand-related net costs in base rates to those PJM demand-related net costs actually incurred during the review period.

2. "PJME" is the actual annual PJM energy-related net costs (over)/under; calculated by comparing the amount of PJM energy-related net costs in base rates to those PJM energy-related net costs actually incurred during the review period.
3. "BE_{Class}" is the historic annual retail jurisdictional billing KWH for each tariff class for the current year.
4. "CP_{Class}" is the coincident peak demand for each tariff class estimated as follows:

1. "BE_{Total}" is the sum of the BE_{Class} for all tariff classes.
2. "CP_{Total}" is the sum of the CP_{Class} for all tariff classes.

The adjustment factor as computed above shall be further modified to allow the recovery of uncollectible accounts expense, the Commission Assessment pursuant to KRS 278.130, and other similar revenue based taxes and charges occasioned by the PJM Rider adjustment revenues.

The adjustment factor as calculated above will be applied to all billing kilowatt-hours for those tariff classes listed above.

The annual PJM Rider factor shall be filed with the Commission thirty (30) days before it is scheduled to go into effect, along with all necessary supporting data to justify the amount of the adjustments which shall include data and information as may be required by the Commission.

RATE.

1. The purchase power adjustment shall provide for monthly adjustments based on a percent of revenues, equal to the net costs of any power purchases in the current period according to the following formula:

Monthly Purchase Power Adjustment Factor

Net KY Retail P(m)

KY Retail R(m)

Where:

Net KY Retail P(m) = Monthly P(m) allocated to Kentucky Retail Customers, net of Over/(Under) Recovery Adjustment; Allocation based on Percentage of Kentucky Retail Revenues to Total Company Revenues in the Expense Month (m). (For purposes of this formula, Total Company Revenues include only Retail and Full-Requirements Wholesale revenues.)

KY Retail R(m) = Kentucky Retail Revenues for the Expense Month (m).

2. The net costs of any power purchases shall exclude costs recovered through the Fuel Adjustment Clause and shall be computed as the sum of the following items:

- a. PPA(m) = The cost of power purchased by the Company through new Purchase Power Agreements (PPAs) less the net energy cost of such power purchases.
- b. RP(m) = The cost of fuel related substitute generation less the cost of fuel which would have been used in plants suffering forced generation or transmission outages.
- c. CM(m) = The contract management fee equal to a percentage (equal to the Company's most recently approved weighted average cost of capital) of PPA(m).

Monthly P(m) = PPA(m) + RP(m) + CM(m)

3. The monthly purchase power adjustment shall be filed with the Commission ten (10) days before it is scheduled to go into effect, along with all the necessary supporting data to justify the amount of the adjustment, which shall include data, and information as may be required by the Commission.
4. Copies of all documents required to be filed with the Commission shall be open and made available for public inspection at the office of the Public Service Commission pursuant to the provisions of KRS 61.870 to 61.884.

EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGE IN CUSTOMER RATES

If approved as filed, the Company's proposed changes to its rates and tariffs will result in a proposed annual increase in electric revenues for Kentucky Power of approximately 23.39%. Kentucky Power's proposal includes a proposed Transmission Adjustment Tariff which adjusts customers' charges based upon the wholesale cost of transmission. If that adjustment is not approved, and the remainder of the application is approved as filed, Kentucky Power's proposed annual increase in electric revenues will be approximately 24.17%.
